

You may think that what you do goes unnoticed by the American people. Rest assured, we are watching and we will be heard!
Do not create a monopoly of the American Media. We're already a joke in Britain. Catch the next BBC documentary on the American Media and you'll feel as ashamed to be an American as we all soon will because the FCC can't and/or won't do it's job.